Hi all. I am currently self-teaching myself Latin. I have a variety of textbooks that I am using, but Wheelock's Latin is one of my main ones. However, I have realized that there is no answer key available for the Workbook for Wheelock's Latin. I understand that it's important to do the absolute best you can at figuring out a translation or answer, and whether I am confident that I got the ...

No answer keys available for the Wheelock's Latin Workbook?

For nearly sixty years, Wheelock's Latin has remained the opitmus liber of beginning Latin textbooks. When Professor Frederic M. Wheelock's Latin first appeared in 1956, the reviews extolled its thoroughness, organization, and conciseness; one reviewer predicted that the book "might well become the standard text" for introducing students to elementary Latin.

Wheelock's Latin - Wikipedia

This Wheelock's Latin text is in its seventh edition, although I originally reviewed the sixth edition. A few years ago, I received a few rave recommendations for this Latin text that prompted me to review it. This text probably has not been too well known among homeschoolers because it is written for college and adult students and only covers a little more than does a typical first year high ...
